THE CAREFUL ATTENTION OF THOSE OF

THE FAMILY

NOW LIVING WHO ARE INTERESTED IN THEIR

GENEALOGICAL HISTORY,

TO BE PRESERVED FOR THE USE, INFORMATION OR CURIOSITY OF FUTURE GENERATIONS,

THIS WORK IS RESPECTFULLY DEDICATED

BY THE AUTHOR.

PREFACE.

SEVERAL years ago the subject of the relationship of some members of the family to which he belonged claimed the attention of the writer of this work: pursuing some investigations relating thereto, matter began to accumulate, and the idea presented itself of making it up in a permanent shape. Having but a limited amount of time to devote in that way, the progress has necessarily been slow, and it is not without a keen pang of regret that the book did not appear before some valued and interested members of the family had passed from the earth. As to the living, the hope is entertained that their patience has not been exhausted, and that the volume will now be a welcome addition to their library.

Those of the family who have kindly answered inquiries will please accept thanks; and with the almost universal desire that has been manifested to render the proper information, the feeling of charity may be generously extended to a diffident or hostile few.

That the work has more nearly made an approach to completeness especial obligations are due to the "Pennsylvania Historical Society" of Philadelphia, and to my valued friend Gilbert Cope of West Chester, Pa., for access to their extensive genealogical collections; also for many kind suggestions and friendly aid.

Believing the work to be as correct in arrangement and detail as could be obtained by ordinary diligence, and desiring a lenient judgment for any unintentional mistakes that may appear, the Record is now presented.

EXPLANATIONS.

It is the hope of the writer that the plan which has been followed is such that all can understand it, yet a few observations may be of service. The work has been divided into two parts, in order to keep the lines of the Trimble in a more compact form, believing this will give the best satisfaction. The children of each family will be found in regular order by the number of their parents in the succeeding generation. The maiden names, when obtained, are given, to show the family connections. The occupation and address always refer to the husband when the numbered name is a married woman, and in other cases to the numbered name, unless specially stated. There is but one number to each direct descendant in the book. When a small figure thus ⁽⁶⁾ is attached to the right of a name, it indicates that the person belongs also to that generation.

ABBREVIATIONS.

Ch. or ch.	for child or children.

GENEALOGICAL RECORD.

PALMER DIVISION.

FIRST GENERATION.

As a frontispiece to this work a view of Concord Meeting-house is presented. Concord Meeting was established very soon after the arrival of William Penn and his colonists, probably commencing in 1684, the meetings being held for some time at the houses of Friends until they could afford to build a house for that purpose. The land for the meeting-house and graveyard was conveyed, or rather leased, to trustees by John Mendenhall in 1697, they to pay for it "one peppercorn yearly for ever." It is probable that a house was soon erected, but of its nature nothing is known. In 1728 a brick edifice was erected, which stood until 1788, when it was burned down. The present building supplies its place, but the right-hand portion, as far as the left door, represents the original brick building, and is presented as the scene of many of our forefathers' actions.

The name is illustrative of their harmonious feelings. Here they worshiped according to the dictates of their own consciences; here their love-vows were fulfilled at the marriage altar; and close by, in the graveyard which is immediately back of the house, lies the dust of

"Brave hearts that dared the rough broad seas
For homes and freedom in the wood—
Strong arms that felled the giant trees,
And tilled the earth where once they stood.

"They came not here to carve a name
On Honor's tablet high and grand:
Their humble works, unknown to Fame,
Still live and bless their chosen land.

"To that young land their needful aid
Helped to achieve results sublime,
And each progressive step they made
Has left its mark for coming time.

"Their duties were their chief desires,
Their faith no narrow creed confined;
And we inherit from such sires
Full right to freedom of the mind.

"And where they sleep small flowerets bloom,
That scarcely catch the passer's gaze:
It was their wish no flaunting tomb
Should be emblazoned with their praise."—PAINTER.

In the work herewith presented the author has not preceded the settlement of Pennsylvania, excepting by an occasional note that has fallen into his hands, or to discover the origin of some of the principal surnames connected with its progress. It may be proper to observe that the cause of this is owing to the lack of positive records and difficulty in obtaining correct information; and so, with the materials at hand, I proceed to their arrangement.

The word Palmer traces its origin from the time of the Crusades in the twelfth and thirteenth centuries. The emblem of superiority or triumph had for a long time become associated with the palm tree, it is said, from its peculiar nature of regaining its true position after being bent or pressed out of shape. The evidence of its emblematic nature may be seen by reference to a few passages from the Bible.

In relation to the Feast of Tabernacles (Leviticus xxiii. 40):
"And ye shall take you on the first day the boughs of goodly trees, branches of palm trees, and boughs of thick trees, and willows of the brook ; and ye shall rejoice before the Lord your God seven days."

The ninety-second Psalm, written near the close of the Babylonish Captivity by one, probably, having a view of their return to the Land of Promise, in the twelfth verse says, "The righteous shall flourish like the palm tree: he shall grow like a cedar in Lebanon."

Solomon, describing the graces of Christ's Church (Song of Sol. vii. 7, 8): "This thy stature is like to a palm tree, and thy breasts to clusters of grapes. I said, I will go up to the palm tree, I will take hold of the boughs thereof."

When Jesus made his triumphal entry into Jerusalem (John xii. 12, 13): . . . "when they heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem, took branches of palm trees and went forth to meet him, and cried, Hosanna! Blessed is the King of Israel that cometh in the name of the Lord!"

John, in his vision of the number sealed (Rev. vii. 9): "After I beheld, and lo, a great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands."

We therefore find, though centuries had intervened, that the same idea prevailed, and that those infatuated bands who sought the deliverance of the Holy Land often carried to their homes branches of this tree as emblems of their journey, and by their persistence gained a name—PALMER.

As to the general name of the palms, it appears to have been derived from palma, the palm or inner part of the hand, from a fancied resemblance of their quaint pointed leaves to the human hand.

It might also be stated that Robert Ferguson, in his work, "Teutonic Name-System applied to the Family Names of England, France and Germany," gives the origin of the name in some families from the roots Bal, Bale or Pale, meaning "woe," in the sense of one who inflicts calamity on others, and Mer, meaning "famous"—together meaning "famous in war," etc., and forming in French the names Ballemare, Palmier; in English, Balmer, Palmer, etc.

With these records of derivation it is easily perceived that there could be no common patriarch to many of the various families of the name that now exist; therefore, though the name may often figure in the records of the Old World, it will require the most definite proof to connect their Transatlantic relationship.

Besse records the name a few times in his "Sufferings of the Quakers," from which I extract:

"In 1658, Thomas Palmer and Richard Mills, coming to a meeting in Banbury, Oxfordshire, had two mares taken from them, valued at £5."

"In 1659, Thomas Palmer and two others were subpoenaed into the Exchange at the suit of John Dyke, a priest, for tithes, valued at 14s.: they appeared accordingly, but refusing to swear to their answer, were imprisoned for contempt in a low dungeon at Warwick, twenty steps deep, where the said Thomas Palmer lay ten months."

"In 1660, Rose Palmer and others committed close prisoners to the Bottom in Aldburgh, for frequenting meetings at Ipswich, Suffolk."

"In Buckinghamshire seventeen persons, including one Thomas Palmer, were taken out of a meeting by soldiers and carried to justices, who, upon their refusing to swear, sent them to prison."

"In 1664, Ezekiel Palmer of Cambridgeshire had seven cows taken, worth £22, for nonconformity to public worship."

"In London this year there died in Newgate, or by sickness contracted there, twenty-five persons—viz., John Clark, John Wilkinson, John Lewis, William Tomkins, John Hales, Robert Twynn, Henry Haster, Joseph Stonehouse, Mary Draper, John Palmer, John Cooke, Edward Baker, Andrew Andrews, John Wildbore, Richard Twynn, Mary Davis, George Hide, Hannah Cooke, Mary Mile, Henry Woodward, Richard Audley, Mary Travers, Roger Evans, Hannah Drury and Benjamin Greenwell. When the relations of some of the deceased desired their bodies in order to bury them, it was not granted; but they were privately interred in the ground belonging to the gaol, that their deaths might be concealed as much as possible from the observation of the people."

"This year concludes by the actual transportation of three of the prisoners to Jamaica, though one died on shipboard." Soon after this the "pestilence" broke out in the city, which was thought by many to be a punishment inflicted by the hand of God on a persecuting nation, and was plainly foretold by some of the people called Quakers, particularly by George Bishop of Bristol, who several months before published the following warning, viz.:

"To the King and both Houses of Parliament:—Thus saith the Lord, Meddle not with my people because of their conscience to me, and banish them not out of the nation because of their conscience; for if you do I will send my plagues upon you, and you shall know that I am the Lord.

"Written in obedience to the Lord by his servant,

GEORGE BISHOP.

"BRISTOL, 15th of the 9 mo., 1664.'"

In the chancel at Snoland in Kent, where Thomas Palmer, who married the daughter of Fitz Simon, lies buried, is the following epitaph:

"Palmers all our faders were
I a Palmer lived here
And travelled still, till wud age
I ended this world's pilgrimage
On the blest Ascension day
In the cheerful month of May
A thousand with four hundred seaven
I took my journey hence to heaven."

Bailey, in "Clark's Introduction to Heraldry," thus defines the difference between a palmer and pilgrim: "A Pilgrim had some dwelling-place, a Palmer none ; a Pilgrim travelled to some certain place, the Palmer to all ; the Pilgrim must go at his own charge, the Palmer must profess poverty, whether real or willful ; the Pilgrim might give over his profession, but the Palmer might not."

Burke's "Encyclopedia of Heraldry" describes forty-five coats-of-arms under the name of Palmer, one of which is herewith presented. It will illustrate the range of thought in those times, even though it may have no connection with our family :

Wivern.

Arms.

Sable, a Chev. Or,
bet. 3 crescents ar.

Crest.

A Wivern Or,
Armed & Sangued gu.

On a few of them were mottoes, for example :

"Par sit fortunam labori."

"Palma virtuti."

"In Deo est mihi omnes fides."

From Shakespeare we have the line—

"Where do the palmers lodge, I do beseech you?"

All's Well that Ends Well, Act iii., scene 5.

Contemporary with John Palmer, the immigrant to Concord, there lived in London Samuel Palmer, an eminent printer, in whose office Benjamin Franklin was some time employed. He died in 1732.

Later in the eighteenth century figured John Palmer, an actor of very considerable talents belonging to the Drury Lane Theatre, born about 1742. In his profession he excelled. He died suddenly on the stage immediately after uttering the words, "There is another and a better world."

There arrived in Pennsylvania about 1684, John and Christian Palmer in the ship Providence of Scarborough, Robert Hopper master, and settled in Bucks county. No known relationship existed between these and the Concord settler, and as there has never appeared any tradition concerning an affinity, it is highly probable they sprang from distinct families in the mother country.

Savage, in his "Genealogical Dictionary of New England," gives the names of a great number of Palmers who settled in that region, and who doubtless are the progenitors of many of the name scattered through this country. One name that would be exactly contemporary with the Concord settler has this record: "John Palmer, born 1667, son of John of Situate, son of first John of Situate, who came to this country in September, 1635."

In the purchase that has given the name Nine Partners to a place and Meeting in Dutchess county, New York, one of the nine who entered into that extensive partnership was — Palmer, who doubtless was a Friend, and whose descendants are numerous throughout this country.

An Anthony Palmer was president of the Provisional Council of Pennsylvania and ex-officio governor from June 6, 1747, to Nov. 23, 1748; but from what family he was a descendant does not appear.

There were also settlers of the name in New Jersey. Smith, in his history of that State, mentions a John Palmer of Staten Island having, with others, a settlement on the Raritan about the Falls, and that "John Palmer was appointed, by Deputy-Governor Rudyard, as one of six persons whom he appointed as a council for East Jersey; in which he was continued till 1684, when a new council was appointed." There are doubtless numerous other accounts and incidents, more or less interesting, connected with the name, but not coming under notice, these may suffice, and I shall proceed to the consideration of John Palmer, who settled in Concord, Chester (now Delaware) co., Pa., previous to or about 1688.

A general tradition exists that John Palmer was either enticed or beguiled to leave the home of his mother in England (his father being dead) by those interested, to pay his way for the profit to result from his labor (a custom somewhat in vogue at that time), and that he embarked from London and came to Pennsylvania, where he served a number of years at labor for his passage. No authentic records have been found to corroborate this tradition, but as it is very generally upheld by the elder members of the family, and as no other account is to be found as to his appearance in this country, it seems safe to give it a place in his history.

The first reliable account that appears of his doings is the purchase of one hundred acres of land, of the patent for which the following is a copy :

Copy of Patent to John Palmer, 1688.

(Signed)

WM MARKHAM JOHN GOODSONN.

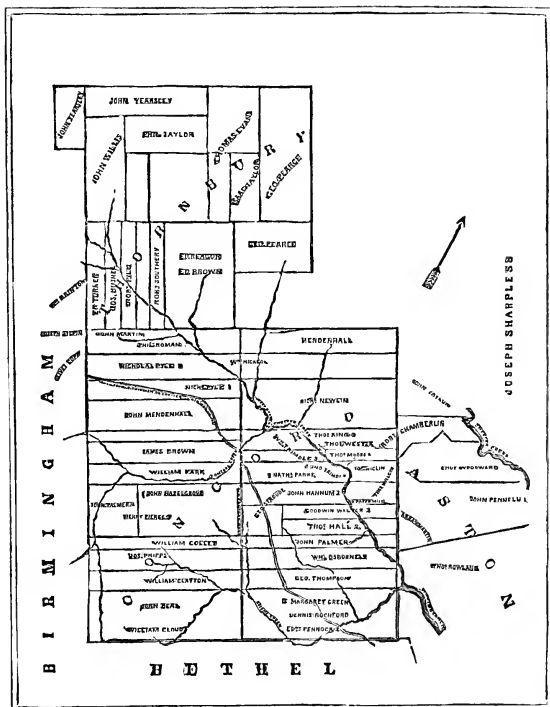

It is probable that he contracted his marriage about this time, for although no record of it has been preserved, yet all my researches have pointed to this period as the time of its consummation. He married Mary Suddery (Southery), who was a daughter of Robert Southery, fuller by trade, late of Westbury, in the county of Wiltshire, Great Britain. Robert was the purchaser of two hundred and fifty acres of land in Thornbury, by deed bearing date the tenth and eleventh days of October, 1682. (See map.) But it is not certain he ever resided thereon. He died before 1688; who his wife was, or even her name, does not appear.

Mary had a sister Margery, who married John Hannum, and settled in Concord about half a mile north of her sister. They were the only children, and after their father's death they, with their husbands, disposed of his late possessions. These facts in relation to them are established by the deeds given in the disposition of their land, the first of which is dated the 1st day of the 1st mo., 1688, unto Nicholas Pyle, and is noticed in the court-records of the time, and more fully in a deed of release dated the 31st day of December, An. Dom. 1715, between John Palmer, yeoman, and Mary his wife, and John Hannum, yeoman, and Margery his wife, all of the township of Concord, county of Chester, Province of Pennsylvania, of the one part, and William Brinton, yeoman, of Birmingham, of the other part; in which it is fully set forth that "Robert Suddery in his lifetime became lawfully seized in his Demeasn as of fee of in the s^d Two hundred and fifty acres of land with the appurtenances and Dyed seized thereof in his estate aforesaid after whose Decease the same Two hundred & fifty acres of land with the appurtenances Descended & came to the s^d Mary and Margery parties to these presents as the Daughters and only heir of him the said Robert Suddery."

It is likely John and Mary were Friends, for a time at least, for their older children appeared to have a right of membership in the Society, which was not the case with the younger ones until taken into Meeting, as will be noticed under their names. But the facts and traditions relating to that period indicate that they left the Society through the defection of George Keith, a minister, who went off because of non-agreement in doctrine, and that they soon after joined the Baptists. By records of the Baptist Society, which were in the possession of the late Robert Frame, Esq., of Birmingham, it appears that on 6 mo. 10th, 1697, Thomas Powell, John Palmer, etc., five in number, were baptized; also on 7 mo. 27, 1697, John Hannum, Margery Hannum, Mary Palmer, etc., ten in number, were baptized—all in Ridley Creek.

SETTLEMENT OF JOHN PALMER.

On the return of Keith from England, whither he had gone soon after his schism, he records preaching at John Hanon's (Hannum's) in Concord, 2 mo. 9, 1702, on the text Matt. xvi. 18, and on the 11th he preached at Thomas Powell's, and states that both these men were formerly Quakers, together with several of their neighbors. In Smith's "History of Delaware County" it is noticed that there were quite a number in Concord who adhered to Keith. These facts seem to point quite definitely to their religious position, but their children seem not to have gone with them (or at least those of whom the records have come down to us), but to have continued members of the Society of Friends.

Of the birth of either John or Mary nothing is known, but from the date of their marriage, and being no doubt in the bloom of manhood and womanhood, we may reasonably conclude they came upon this earth between 1660 and 1670. They continued to reside upon the land he had purchased all their lives, but as to the nature of their dwelling-house, history seems to be silent. The present dwelling (see illustration) was enlarged by his grandson Moses, and is probably very nearly upon the original site.

An incident is preserved relating to Mary, that she drove a bear away from a chestnut tree with a fire-poker or poking-stick; and Stephen Hall, who died 7 mo. 26, 1815, at an advanced age, used to boast that he had seen five generations of the Palmers—that he remembered the first John Palmer, who was a little white-headed Englishman, but he remembered his wife better, for she once gave him a piece of bread and butter.

The time of their death is very nearly established by their wills. John's will is dated 2 mo. (April) 22, 1739-40, and was proven 7 mo. 1, 1742; hence he probably died in the 5th or 6th mo. (July or August) of that year.

Mary survived her husband a short time; she made a will bearing date 3 mo. (May) 28, 1744, which was proven 3 mo. 18, 1745, and hence her death happened nearly about the forepart of the latter year. In her will she gave a few things to each of her children as mementoes of remembrance, and left £10 to buy Bibles for her grandchildren.

John's will is as follows, in which the nature of his family is clearly indicated :

“In the name of God Amen : I John Palmer senior of Concord in the County of Chester Being weak of Body yet perfect in mind and memory (Thanks be to God therefor) and calling to mind the mortality of my body I do ordain this as my Last Will and Testament.

“And first I commit my Soul to God who gave it (in full assurance that at the last day I shall receive the same again) and my body to the Earth to be buried in an orderly Christian-like way and manner according to the discretion of my Executors, and as for what worldly goods it hath pleased God to endow me with I do dispose of them in manner following :

“Imprimus, I do leave to my dearly beloved wife Mary Palmer the whole use and benefits of my real estate during her lifetime.

“Item, I do leave to each of my children (viz.) Jno. Palmer, Catherine Skears, Eals Buffington, Marjery Kerlin, Ann Trimble and Mary Trimble, the Sum of forty shill's Pennsylvania Money, and the said sums to be paid at the end of one whole year after my Decease, and the same to be raised out of my personal Estate at the discretion of my Executors and the remaining part of my personal estate I do leave to my dearly beloved wife to dispose of at her pleasure.

“Item, I alow that at the death of my beloved wife Mary Palmer my Real Estate with Dwelling-house, Barn, Orchards and all appertenances, thereunto belonging to fall unto my beloved son Jno. Palmer, that which I do leave from that time (viz.) my wife's decease, to the aforesaid John Palmer my son to occupy, use, dispose of or sell at his will and pleasure and the said Jno. Palmer paying the several sums of money herein specified.

“Item, I alow that at the end or expiration of two full years after the death of my wife and my son John coming into the possession of my Real Estate that he shall pay to each of my daughters (or to their heirs in case of mortality) (viz.) Catherine Skears, Eals Buffington, Marjery Kerlin, Ann Trimble and Mary Trimble the sum ten pounds Pennsylvania money which I alow as their parts of my Real Estate. I alow my dearly beloved wife Mary Palmer and my well Beloved Son Jno. Palmer to be Executors of this my last Will and Testament. Utterly Disanulling and making void all former Wills or Testaments made by me and allowing this and no other to stand, as witness my hand and seal this 22nd day of February in the year of our Lord God 1739, 40.

It is to be hoped that the accuracy of this account was satisfactory to the executors.

The remains of an old graveyard which still exists on their tract, and which the accompanying sketch illustrates, mark the spot of their interment.* It bears strongly the marks of neglect, and, save a couple of headstones, which serve to call to mind its ancient dedication, has naught to guide the modern investigator. This state of things the compiler of this work hopes at no distant day to change, and to have a suitable enclosure and memorial-stone erected, to be an anchor of knowledge to the generations of children hence to occupy our places.

The position of John Palmer's land, as well as of nearly all of the original settlers in Concord and vicinity, can be plainly seen by reference to the accompanying map. See page 26.

SECOND GENERATION.

Ch. of John Palmer (No. 1) and Mary Southery.

2. John, b. about the year 1690, but the exact date does not appear. He was known by the appellation of John Palmer, Junior, and it is a traditional story that being an only son his parents were fearful that their name might suffer the fate of his mother's; but subsequent events no doubt relieved their minds on this score. He m. Martha Yearsley 4 mo (June) 9, 1714, dau. of John and Elizabeth, who came from Middlewich, England, A. D. 1700, and settled in Thornbury, Chester co., Pa. (See map.) Martha was b. 4 mo. (June) 14, 1696, and hence crossed the ocean quite young with her parents. They brought a family of five children, to wit: a son John (who m. Sarah Conway), and four daughters: Elizabeth, who m. Moses Key 12 mo. 18, 1701; Martha as above; Sarah and Hannah. The elder John Yearsley d. in 1708, and Elizabeth his wife d. 3 mo. 25, 1728.

The proceedings in relation to John and Martha's marriage are set forth in the following extracts from the records of Concord Monthly Meeting of Friends:

"At a Monthly Meeting held at Chichester Meeting-house the 13 day of the 7th mo., 1714.

"John Palmer junr & Martha Yearsley appeared here and Declared their intentions of Marriage it being the first time. Thomas Peirson and Henry Oburn are appointed to make Inquiry into his Clearness relating to marriage, and make report to the next meeting."

“At a Monthly Meeting held at Concord Meeting-house the 11th day of the 8th mo., 1714, “John Palmer & Martha Yearsly appeared here & continued their intentions of marriage, it being the second time, & he producing a Certificate from his Parents of their consent they requesting this Meeting’s allowance or concurrence herein.

“Therefore this meeting leaves them to proceed according to the good order of Truth. Edward Bennet & William Brainton are appointed to attend the marriage and make report to the next meeting.”

At the next monthly meeting—

“Those Persons that were appointed to attend the marriage of John Palmer & Martha Yearsley make report that it was accomplished orderly at the meeting-house at Concord.”

Their marriage certificate as recorded by “Friends” is here appended :

They remained in good standing in the Society all their lives, and their names frequently occur in the business of the Meeting, especially as witnesses to numerous marriages.

John followed the occupation of farming, at first on the farm bequeathed by his father, and subsequently on land purchased by him in the western part of Concord. (See map.) This tract of land, containing one hundred and seventy-five acres, he purchased of Henry Pearce and Sarah his wife by deed bearing date the 9th day of the 9th month, A. D. 1712, it being part of an extensive tract taken up by John Hazelgrove previous to 1703; but they probably did not remove thither until about 1748, at which time they gave the home-place to their son Moses by a deed of gift, stating the act to be from "the natural love and Affection they bear to him, as well as for his better preferment in the world." A view of the old house and surrounding land is given opposite.

John appears to have taken an interest in the affairs going on around him, and was one amongst others to be early concerned in schools.

By his will, which is here annexed, it is apparent that of ten children which were born to him, only four were living when he made it, and that he either had given his two daughters a share of his estate in his lifetime, as he had his son Moses, or thought that they did not need much.

JOHN PALMER.

Signed Sealed Published and Declared by the said John Palmer to be his last will and Testament in the Presents of John Wilson William Walter J^o Hannum.

He died 5 mo., 1771, and was buried near the graves of his parents. A stone at the head of his grave bears the inscription, "I. P. 1771." Martha survived him a few years. Her most familiar name was "Patty Palmer." Rachel Arment, who died in 1855 in her 95th year, remembered her quite well, and said she would often walk from one son's to the other's, a distance of two miles, when a very old woman. The time of her death is not recorded, but it probably happened before 1780.

3. Catherine, the oldest dau.; the records concerning her are very meagre. She m. — Skears, but of her descendants I have been able to get barely a trace. The names of Hebart Sker and Rebecca Sker appear as witnesses to the marriage of William Trimble and Ann Palmer, and the names of Albertos Scare and Margaret Scare as witnesses to the marriage of James Trimble and Mary Palmer. It is reasonable to infer that at least Hebart and Albertos were her sons, and that Rebecca and Margaret were either daughters or daughters-in-law. This ends my research concerning her.

4. Eals (Alice). No record of her birth or death: m. Richard Buffington in or soon after the year 1721; was his third, or possibly fourth, wife. In the year mentioned he was single, and deeded to his two sons a farm apiece.

His descendants are quite numerous; and it is related that in 1739, at the age of eighty-five, he assembled at his own house one hundred and fifteen descendants. He died in January or February, 1747-8. In religion he was a Baptist, and was present at the first Baptist organization in these parts in 1715. Alice survived him, but how long is not known; whether she had children is not definitely known. There was a Joseph Buffington, who d. the latter part of 1785, aged about 63 years, who was most probably her son. He purchased a farm in 1747 situated in the Forks of the Brandywine, and resided thereon. He is described as being of a benevolent nature, and often concerned to administer to the wants of the needy in the surrounding neighborhood. He remained a bachelor during life.

5. Marjery, b. as nearly as can be determined about 1702. Her parents having left Friends' Meeting, she consequently was not a member, but at a monthly meeting of women Friends, held at Chichester Meeting-house "ye 1st of ye 3 mo., 1724, John Gore & Marjery Palmer declared their intention of Marriage ye first time, she producing a paper from her father signifying his and his wife's being willing she should proceed in marrying amongst Friends, she also Desiring to come under Friends' care. Hannah Oburn and Elizabeth Walter are to inquire &c."

Women Friends reported favorably and the marriage proceeded, but men Friends appear to have been a little negligent, as "Those friends that were appointed to attend the marriage of John Gore and Marjery Palmer report through some occasion they were neither of them there, the which shortness is acknowledged, notwithstanding this meeting has received information that ye said marriage was accomplished orderly the 17th day of ye 4th mo. 1724."

John lived but a short time after their marriage, and no records are to be found of any children.

The next account of Marjery is, "At our Monthly Meeting of Women Friends held at Concord Meeting house 1st mo. 7, 1735,

"Marjery Gore being a member for sometime of this meeting, but of late hath Entertained a man in her house and saith she is married to him by a Priest but Refuseth to tell ye time, and friends being with her but not Receiving Satisfaction Edith Newlin & Grace Eavenson are appointed with a man friend to give her another visit and if they find occasion, to draw a Testimony against her and Produce it to ye next meeting."

This was done, but not immediately carried into effect, for "At our Monthly Meeting of Women Friends held at Concord Meeting House ye 1st of ye 10th mo. 1735,

"Marjery Gore or Carlin sent a paper which was noway satisfaction wherefore Mary West & Grace Eavenson are appointed with a man friend to draw up a Testimony against her and make report to ye next meeting."

After a lapse of six years it appears—

"At our Monthly Meeting of Women Friends held in Concord meeting house ye 4th of ye 11th mo 1741, Marjery Carrel Produced a paper of acknowledgment for her outgoing which this meeting accepts."

Her husband's first name was Daniel, as "Daniel Carroll & ux Margery relict and adm^r of John Gore," exhibit accounts of administration, 1736-7. He made his mark, and she signed Margery Carrell. The last of her whereabouts is thus determined :

"At our Monthly Meeting of Women Friends held in Concord meeting house ye 1st of ye 12 mo. 1741-2 Marjery Carrel Desires a few lines by way of certificate in order to be joyned to a monthly meeting in the Jerseys, Mary Newlin and Rachel Pyle are appointed to enquire into her conversation & make report to the man friend appointed to draw the said certificate."

My researches have failed to trace her descendants, but have led to the belief that there are some, and that the name has in some cases become contracted or changed to that of Carll, of which name there are many families to be found in New Jersey.

The remaining two daughters of John and Mary—viz., Ann (No. 6) and Mary (No. 7)—having married brothers—to wit, William and James Trimble—it appears advisable to carry out the record of their descendants in a consolidated form; hence they will be found in the Trimble Division. The numbers, however, will be continued regularly through each generation, so that there may be but one name to a number in the book.

There also may have been other children in this generation, but if so they died young, and no record is preserved of them.

THIRD GENERATION.

Ch. of John Palmer (No. 2) and Martha Yearsley, all born in Concord, Chester (now Delaware) co., Pa.

8. Mary, b. 6 mo. 21, 1715; d. young.

9. John, b. 8 mo. 20, 1717; d. young.

10. Isaac, b. 9 mo. 13, 1719; d. young.

11. Moses, b. 5 mo. 26, 1721; d. 6 mo. 20, 1783; m. Abigail Newlin 2 mo. (April) 17, 1745, in Friends' M.-H. at Concord. She lived but a few years after their marriage, leaving one child. The records concerning her are not positive, but from the connections of name and circumstances she seems to have been the dau. of Nicholas Newlin and Edith Pyle. The dates of her birth and death are not known.

Nicholas, son of Nathaniel Newlin and Mary Mendenhall (who were m. 2 mo. 13, 1685) and brother to Nathaniel, Jr. (see No. 142). Nathaniel, Sr., emigrated with his parents, Nicholas and Elizabeth, from Mountmelick, in the county of Tyrone, Ireland, in 1683. They settled in Concord, their land adjoining that purchased by William Trimble, and the mill there erected has on a stone built in the wall the inscription, "Nathan'l and Mary Newlin 1704." (See illustration, page 285.)

"It is intimated that the reason for the emigration of the elder Newlin was 'his fearfulness of suffering there for the testimony of Jesus,' but his conduct here showed him to be a man firm in the performance of duty under all circumstances."* Mary

* Smith's "Hist. Del. Co., Pa."

Mendenhall was a sister to John, Benjamin and Moses, all being emigrants from Mildenhall in Suffolk, England.

She attained the great age of over a century, and it is a tradition in relation to her "that she went out and reaped a sheaf of wheat the day she was one hundred years old."

Edith Pyle, dau. of Nicholas Pyle and Abigail Bushel, who were m. in 1688. He was an immigrant with his brother Robert (see No. 17), and Abigail, an immigrant and dau. of Joseph and Sarah Bushel of Brinkworte, England.

Moses, m. second wife, Abigail Sharpless, 11 mo. 22, 1752, widow of William Sharpless, and mother by him of two children, of which one, Abraham, grew up and became an extensive landholder in Aston and Concord. He died in 1835.

In the proceedings relating to their marriage occurs the following: "At a monthly meeting 9 of 10 mo. 1752 Moses Palmer and Abigail Sharpless appeared and proposed their intentions of marriage. Caleb Peirce and William Peters are to inquire as to his clearness relating to marriage and L. Hewes to see that the widow's affairs are settled to satisfaction." Everything being satisfactory, they were allowed to proceed.

At a monthly meeting 4 of 12 mo. 1752: "The friends appointed to attend the marriage of Moses Palmer and Abigail Sharpless report that for reason satisfactory to this meeting they could not attend but have made enquiry and find it was orderly accomplished in Concord meeting house and moderate at the house of entertainment."

Abigail's maiden name was Sharp, dau. of Joseph and Mary of New Garden, Chester co., b. 4 mo. 28, 1729; d. 2 mo. 14, 1805, surviving her husband over twenty years.

In early life Moses appears to have been instructed in the mystery of cordwaining, but soon left it for the more congenial occupation of farming. He continued on the land obtained of his father in 1748 for many years; he also purchased the adjoining ing tract on the south, to which he removed a few years before his death.

By his will, dated 6 mo. 10, 1783 (a few days before his death), he bequeathed to his son John "two-thirds of that plantation that was my grandfather's . . . of ye east end." To his son Moses "one third part of the above mentioned Tract," and to his son Joseph "all that my Plantation that I now liveth on containing sixty-six Acres He to allow his mother free ingrace, agrace, and Regrace into and from one moety or half part of my Dwelling-House which half she cuseth, free Privilig of water out of the well and to bake in the oven, also shall Keep for his s'd Mother one cow and one horse creature. Provide cut and draw sufficient wood for her &c.

"If my Widdow should Marry my Will is that then and in that case all her annuetis & Privilegs shall cace & be no more."

To his son Aaron he left one hundred pounds, gold or silver money, and to his daughters fifty pounds apiece, gold or silver money.

12. Elizabeth, b. 3 mo. 24, 1724; d. (no record); m. Nathaniel Eavenson 1746, son of Richard Eavenson and Jemima Newlin (who were m. 9 mo., 1712), b. 1 mo. 28, 1720; d. (no record), but before 1766. The following will explain their deviation. At a monthly meeting held at Concord 5 of 11 mo., 1746, "Complaint is made against Nathaniel Eavenson for being married by a Priest. Caleb Peirce and Thomas Mercer are to pay him a visit and report how they find him." In women's meeting, same date, "Complaint is made against Elizabeth Palmer that was, now Eavenson, for accomplishing her marriage by a Priest. Lydia Mendenhall and Mary Peirce are to visit her and make report." At the next meeting, "2d of 12 mo., 1746, Nathaniel Eavenson appeared here with an acknowledgment which is accepted and ordered to be read at the breaking up of a first-day meeting at Concord." In the women's meeting "Elizabeth Eavenson's paper of acknowledgment joynt with her husband offered to this meeting which is Excepted and left to men friends for Publication."

The children of Nathaniel and Elizabeth being all girls, it was with difficulty that their descendants were ascertained. Nathaniel became the owner of a large tract of land in Thornbury and Westown townships, Chester co., Pa., his deed calling for four hundred and fifty acres, but which probably overran five hundred acres. He and Elizabeth resided thereon until his death. He made no will, and some time after his death his daughters proceeded to have the land divided among themselves, agreeably to the "advice of twelve of their friends." There were five of them at his death, but one appears to have died before the division, as only four of them are mentioned in the writings. The deeds are dated 3 mo. 14, 1783, and set forth their object of giving to each sister a clear title to her share of the property.

Before this time, Elizabeth m. her second husband, William Hawley, both of whom agreed to the above settlement of the property.

The marriage probably took place about 1769, as they were dealt with by Concord Meeting for being m. by a justice about that time. They, however, made an acknowledgment 5 mo. 7, 1774, and died in membership with Friends. They were probably buried at Birmingham. No children by this husband.

13. Rebecca, b. 8 mo. 1, 1726; d. (no record).

14. Martha, b. 3 mo. 11, 1729; d. (no record); m. William Chamberlin 9 mo. 16, 1748, in Concord M.-H., son of John Chamberlin and Lettice Key, b. 11 mo. 24, 1724; d. (no record), probably 1808 to 1810.

John was the son of Robert and Mary, b. 10 mo. 1, 1692. The latter emigrated from England, and no doubt were "Friends." They purchased land in the northern part of Aston, near where is now Stony Bank Methodist meeting-house, and also in Concord adjoining it, and appear to have erected their dwelling-house in the latter twp.

Rebecca Chamberlin

Lettrice Key was the dau. of Moses Key and Elizabeth Yearsley (see No. 2), b. 11 mo. 26, 1703. Martha's mother being a sister to William's grandmother, it will be seen that they were what is known as first cousins once removed.

This was noticed by Concord Monthly Meeting, held the 3 of 8 mo., 1748, as follows, when they proposed their intentions of taking each other in marriage: "William Peters and Joseph Gilpin are to enquire into his clearness Relating to marriage as well as how he stands related in Consanguinity to her ye s'd Martha & report to next meeting." At the next meeting, the 7 of 9 mo., 1748, it may be supposed that some discussion took place in respect to their relationship, for "their s'd intention was allowed of by Permission they having consent of Parents and Relatives concerned."

It seems probable that William and Martha continued to reside within the limits of Concord Meeting, but the place of their residence has not come to my knowledge, though he no doubt had a share of his father's property. They were buried at Concord.

15. Susanna, b. 10 mo. 24, 1731; d. in infancy.

16. Susanna, b. 12 mo. 14, 1732; d. (no record).

17. John, b. 8 mo. 1, 1736; d. 4 mo., 1793; m. Hannah Pyle 4 mo. 28, 1756, in Concord M.-H., dau. of Joseph Pyle and Sarah Gibbons of Bethel (who were m. 11 mo. 10, 1732). The time of her birth is not known, but it was near that of John's. She d. 12 mo. 20, 1802.

Joseph, son of Robert Pyle and Ann Stovey, emigrants from Bishop's Canning, Wiltshire, England, m. there 11 mo. 16, 1681. Ann was the dau. of William Stovey of Hilperton, and Robert a brother to Nicholas (see No. 11). Sarah Gibbons appears to have been the widow of John Gibbons, Jr.; her maiden name was Pennell. John and Hannah resided on his father's land in the western part of Concord, which he afterward inherited. He seems to have been a lover of outdoor recreations. In 1869, when I was making inquiries which have led on to this work, I visited Thomas Dutton, a venerable centenarian of his neighborhood (see No. 1788), and in answer to the question whether he knew John Palmer (referring to this man), his immediate and animated reply was, "Yes, indeed: I went fishing with him many a time." John is said to have attained to the great weight of four hundred pounds, and is historically known as "fat John Palmer." It is probable that his disposition to obesity tended to shorten his life. He made no will, and letters of administration were taken out on his estate 5 mo. 4, 1793. They were both buried at Concord.

FOURTH GENERATION.

Ch. of Moses Palmer (No. 11) and Abigail Newlin, born in Concord.

33. John, b. 11 mo. 4, 1745; d. 9 mo. 18, 1801; m. Hannah Martin 4 mo. 26, 1769, in Concord Meeting-house, dau. of Abraham Martin and Lydia Weldon, b. 2 mo. 18, 1753; d. 4 mo. 11, 1842, and sister to Benjamin (see No. 50). They were considered a "sprightly young couple." John erected buildings on the eastern part of the original Palmer tract, which his father gave him by will, and in connection with farming carried on the business of saddlery. His death appears to have been rather sudden, as he made his will 9 mo. 17, 1801, the day previous to his death. His widow survived him over forty years, continuing at the same place with her son John, who obtained the farm by his father's will.

By Second Wife, Abigail (Sharp) Sharpless.

34. Martha, b. 9 mo. 7, 1753; d. 2 mo. 18, 1831; m. Joseph Chamberlain 4 mo. 24, 1772, in Concord M.-H., son of Robert Chamberlain, Jr., and Ann Painter of Birmingham (who were m. 3 mo. 28, 1747).

Joseph was by trade a blacksmith, and removed with his family to Newark, Del. His death, it is said, occurred in the following manner: He was working in his garden, and being taken suddenly ill went into the house to procure some medicine; in a mistake he partook of something poisonous, which caused his death in a short time.

Robert, Jr., son of Robert Chamberlain, also Jr., who was a brother to John (see No. 14). Ann, dau. of Samuel Painter and Elizabeth Buxcey, who were immigrants.

35. Moses, b. 4 mo. 12, 1757; d. 8 mo. 29, 1840; m. Sarah Phillips 5 mo. 1, 1782, at Hockessin, Del., dau. of William and Mary of Mill Creek Hundred, Del. She d. 5 mo. 27, 1789, in her twenty-ninth year.

M. second wife, Hannah Pennell, 2 mo. 2, 1792, in Concord M.-H., dau. of Joseph Pennell and Sarah Meredith of Aston (who were married 3 mo. 5, 1770), b. 12 mo. 17, 1770; d. 8 mo. 3, 1801.

Moses Palmer

M. third wife, Hannah Gilpin, 10 mo. 10, 1804, in Concord Meeting-house, dau. of Gideon Gilpin and Sarah Gregg of Birmingham, b. 3 mo. 20, 1770; d. 11 mo. 25, 1858.

Gideon, son of Joseph Gilpin, Jr., and Mary Caldwell (who were m. 10 mo. 17, 1729). The elder Joseph Gilpin (son of Thomas and Joan of Warborough) was m. to Hannah Glover at Baghurst in Southamptonshire, England, 2 mo. 23, 1691; they emigrated to Birmingham, Chester (now Delaware) co., and lived for some time in a cave. "It is said that thirteen of fifteen children, with which they were blessed, were born in this cave, and that their parents lived to see them all grown up, and all but two married, and married to their mind." (Smith's "Hist. Del. Co.")

Moses and Sarah settled at the old Palmer homestead, where he continued all his life. He carried on the hatting business, and was also extensively engaged in farming, becoming, as he advanced in years, possessed of extensive land possessions. He was a man of sterling integrity, and occupied a prominent position in the Society of Friends. He represented the county in the State Legislature for four years, from 1798 to 1802, and at home was much engaged in the enterprises of the neighborhood or settling difficulties. After his death Hannah removed to Cincinnati, O.

36. Joseph, b. 4 mo. 21, 1759; d. 7 mo. 30, 1838; m. Hannah Peters 5 mo. 18, 1785, in Concord Meeting-house, dau. of Rees Peters and Catherine Wilson of Aston (who were m. 6 mo. 13, 1764), b. 1767; d. 2 mo. 28, 1842. Rees, a son of William Peters and Catherine, dau. of Robert Wilson.

Joseph by trade was a shoemaker; he sold the farm willed him by his father to his brother Moses, and purchased another on the southern edge of Concord, where, with his family, he continued to reside through life.

37. Abigail, b. 8 mo. 26, 1762; d. 2 mo. —, 1841; unm.

38. Aaron, b. 7 mo. 17, 1765; d. 3 mo. 10, 1842; m. Sarah Wilton 6 mo. 3, 1790, dau. of William and Jane of North Carolina, b. 2 mo. 18, 1767; d. 11 mo. 22, 1834.

Aaron and Sarah resided near Strickerville, Chester co., Pa., very nearly at the point of junction of the three States, Pennsylvania, Delaware and Maryland. By trade he was a hatter.

39. Mary, b. 1 mo. 24, 1768; d. (no record). The only information respecting her which I have been able to find is, that she m. a man named Lockhart, with whom she removed to the West.

40. Ann, b. 1 mo. 9, 1771; d. about 1820; m. Benjamin Starr 3 mo. 10, 1802, in Concord Meeting-house, son of Joseph and Elizabeth of Charlestown, Chester co., Pa., to which place Benjamin and Ann removed. No ch.

Ch. of Elizabeth Palmer (No. 12) and Nathaniel Eavenson.

41. Martha, b. ———; d. before 3 mo. 14, 1783; m. Benjamin Johnson about 1769, as she was dealt with by Concord Monthly Meeting for marrying contrary to its rules, 1 mo. 3, 1770. No account of their children found, but they had at least one child.

42. Hannah, b. ———; d. ———; m. Moses Cock, 12 mo. 10, 1766, of Thornbury, son of Benjamin Cock and Ann Brinton, b. 8 mo. 20, 1742; d. ———? Moses was disowned by Concord Monthly Meeting, for intemperance, in 1775; no record of their having children can be found, but there is a tradition that they had a son who went to New Orleans.

43. Rebecca, b. 2 mo. 1, 1754; d. 9 mo. 23, 1829; m. Benjamin Jones —, 1773? She made an acknowledgment for marrying out of Meeting in 1774.

46. Moses, b. about 1750. He lived to be an "oldish man," and had no children. This is all the information obtained of him. A Moses Chamberlin was testified against for marrying out of Meeting by Concord Monthly Meeting of Friends 8 mo. 7, 1782.

Ch. of John Palmer (No. 17) and Hannah Pyle, all born in Concord, Chester (now Delaware) co., Pa.

Gideon was undoubtedly a descendant of the emigrants Randal Malin and his wife Elizabeth, from Great Barrum, in Cheshire, England, who arrived in Pennsylvania in 1683, and settled in Providence, Chester (now Delaware) co., Pa.

Asher and Alice soon after their marriage removed to within the limits of Kennett Meeting, taking a certificate from Concord Monthly Meeting 5 mo. 5, 1784. By trade he was a blacksmith, and probably removed a few times.

Asher Palmer

He returned to Concord at the death of his father, bringing a certificate from Chester Monthly Meeting 10 mo. 9, 1793, for himself, wife and four children. They then settled on part of his father's land, of which he became the owner.

Benjamin and Hannah resided in Aston. He inherited the land of his ancestors, which adjoined the Palmer tract on its eastern boundary.

56. John, b. (no record); d. 1 mo., 1803; m. Ellen Waddell about 1800. He died leaving one child, and Ellen for many years resided with Curtis Hoopes in Chester co., but of her parentage nothing can be found. She lived to an advanced age.

57. Joseph, b. 11 mo. 13, 1761; d. 7 mo. 13, 1840; m. Sarah Kester 6 mo. 23, 1791, in Concord M.-H., dau. of Samuel Kester and Susanna Hambleton of Birmingham, Delaware co., Pa.

I have been unable to determine whether any relationship existed between John Kester and Samuel (see No. 57), but presume they were brothers.

59. George, b. 1770; d. 9 mo. 21, 1839; m. Sarah Eyre 5 mo. 30, 1799 (they were dealt with for marrying out of Meeting 9 mo. 4, 1799), dau. of John and Rebecca, b. 4 mo. 19, 1772; d. 8 mo. 10, 1861.

George and Sarah lived at Chelsea (formerly known as Corner Ketch) in Bethel, Delaware co., Pa., where he owned a small farm and carried on blacksmithing. No ch. He made no will, and his heirs being very much scattered his estate has never been fully settled.

60. Elizabeth, b. (no record); d. 9 mo. 24, 1823; m. Levi Pyle previous to or about 1790, brother to Nathan and Job (see Nos. 61 and 62).

Removed in 1802 to East Bethlehem, Washington co., Pa., where they permanently settled. By trade he was a tailor.

In relation to the parentage of the foregoing three brothers, it seems that they were the sons of Levi Pyle and Margaret Johnson, who were married 1767, and had eleven ch., among whom the above-named appear. The elder Levi was the son of Jacob Pyle and Jane Sharpless of Thornbury, Chester co., Pa. Jane Sharpless, dau. of Joseph and Lydia (see No. 576), and sister to William, the first husband of Abigail Sharp (see No. 11).

Ch. of John Palmer (No. 33) and Hannah Martin, all born in Concord township, Chester (now Delaware) co., Pa., and, according to the best information, on the original Palmer tract of land.

142. Benjamin, b. 2 mo. 26, 1770; d. 10 mo. 2, 1824; m. Ann Pennell (no precise date found, but Benjamin made an acknowledgment for marrying out of Friends' Meeting 8 mo. 6, 1800; hence they were probably m. the fore part of that year). She was a dau. of James Pennell and Lydia Walter, b. 7 mo. 12, 1778; d. 8 mo. 24, 1851.

They resided at Logtown in Aston township, Delaware co., Pa., he having purchased part of the Martin tract of land. After his death Ann resided principally in Upper Providence township, same county.

James Pennell was probably the son of James Pennell and Jemima Matlack, the elder James being a son of William Pennell, who was a son of Robert and Hannah, who were immigrants and settled in Middletown, Chester (now Delaware) co., in 1686. John, like his father, was a saddler, in connection with which he carried on farming. He inherited that part of the original Palmer tract which his father had obtained in the same way. In 1824 his whole family were taken sick with a species of typhoid fever; three of the children died within a few days of each other; the neighbors then assembled and removed the most of those remaining to their houses, from a fear that some local cause for the disease existed that would carry them off.

He was distinguished through life for a great love of fox-hunting and outdoor exercises, and for an enduring athletic power, few being able to cope with him in mowing, cradling, etc. In feats of agility he also excelled, being able to jump over an object six feet from the ground. The last years of his life were passed in prolonged visits amongst his children.

The portraits annexed are illustrative of the rather memorable coincidence mentioned in the following notice:

“REMARKABLE.—Quite a remarkable occurrence took place at Concord Friends’ Meeting-house on the 12th inst. Four generations were represented, they being John Palmer, his son, grandson and great-grandson; all there to sit in silent worship at the same time. NARROW ESCAPE FROM DEATH.—On Tuesday of last week, while William W. Palmer, of Concord, was in his woods, in company with his son, a shower arose, accompanied with thunder and lightning. To get out of the storm they both took shelter under different large white-oak trees, and while there the lightning struck the tree under which was the father, shattering the top limbs, passing down the trunk and tearing off the bark, until it reached Mr. P., when it glanced off, striking him near the hips, passing downward, burning the skin on parts of his legs and feet, and prostrating him on the ground. His son hastened to his relief, took off his own shoes, and carried water in them to pour on and revive his father. Assistance was soon obtained, and he was conveyed to his home and carried to bed, his nervous system being entirely prostrated. Mr. Palmer is sixty-nine years old, and by no means a strong man. Hopes are, however, entertained of his recovery.—Delaware County Republican of Aug. 22, 1873.

"About one o'clock on Monday last Mr. Larkin and another man were engaged in felling a poplar tree in the woods; it lodged temporarily on an adjacent oak, but a large limb splitting off the former, allowed the oak to return with great force, carrying the poplar limb back with it. The two men started to run, but had only gone a short distance before the falling limb struck Mr. Larkin with full force on the back part of the head, crushing his skull and killing him instantly. Mr. Larkin was one of our most valued citizens, and his loss will be keenly felt by a large circle of acquaintances. He leaves a wife and four children to mourn his loss."

Resided in Upper Chichester, Delaware co., Pa. He lost his life by a stroke of lightning. The following remarkable account thereof is taken from the "Delaware County Republican" of Aug. 9, 1850 :

"On Saturday last, about four o'clock, a storm of wind and rain, accompanied by lightning, passed over this county, during which a dwelling-house near Village Green—where a number of persons were in attendance at a vendue—was struck by lightning. The electric fluid entered the peak of the roof, passing down between the weatherboarding and plastering, scattering them in every direction until it reached the first story, where it divided, one portion passing in at a hook driven in the wall from which a looking-glass was suspended, and striking Nathan P. Dutton, who was standing immediately under the glass, upon the top of the head, leaving but a slight mark. The fluid passed to his left arm above the elbow, thence down his body, burning the skin in its passage. He lived about five minutes, and was sensible of his approaching dissolution. The fluid also passed from him to John McCay, who was standing near, struck him in the back and ran down both his legs, burning the skin and clothes from his body, tearing his shoes to fragments, and leaving a small hole in the toe of one of them as if perforated by a bullet. The other branch of the fluid struck Richard P. Slawter, who was standing outside of the house, and felled him to the ground. He was taken up, but expired in about fifteen minutes. Rachel Dutton, the mother of Nathan, was in an adjoining room, and on being told of the fate of her son, she came out and immediately commenced to render every assistance in her power to restore him to animation. After laboring with great anxiety for nearly half an hour, she gradually fainted away, and continuing to lose respiration she expired in about three-quarters of an hour after the death of her son.

"The remains of the deceased were all committed to the tomb on Monday. The whole neighborhood and many persons from a distance turned out to pay the last tribute to their memories."

He lost his life by being burned with coal oil or something similar. A neighbor of his parents was experimenting with oil, endeavoring to invent a non-explosive burning fluid. He poured some of his compound into a crock and took a light to see if it was full; when the fire came near, the gas from the substance took fire and ignited the whole mass. The man undertook to throw it out, but failed. Henry O. came in the back way, and the door being opened front, he rushed into and through the fire, kicking it out of the house. In doing this some of the oil got on him, burning his legs and arms badly, but the fatality ensued from inhaling the flame. He survived for forty-two hours in great suffering.

TRIMBLE DIVISION.

SECOND GENERATION.*

THE name TRIMBLE, according to Richard Stephen Charnock in his "Ludus Patronymicus, or Etymology of Curious Names," is from trebel, signifying "the fair or fine place," and is probably of Cornish origin. According to the best interpretation, it seems to come from the words tre, "a place" or "town," and bel, "fair" or "pretty;" and as surnames were taken, very considerably, from the surrounding circumstances, it is highly probable that the dweller in some cozy spot still continues to remind his progeny of it by a name, though they may have changed its orthography. It is likely, however, that the name, in some instances, has been derived from the roots trum, "firm," "strong," and compounded with bald, a "fortress," making Trumbald, which has been changed in time to Trumbull and names of that character, which in turn have given place to Tremble, Trimble, etc.—Teutonic Name-System.

The appearance of the name in Ireland was due to the emigration which took place across the Channel, and, with others, it became established in the north of that island.

Concerning the ancestry of those of whom it is now proposed to speak but little can be said. They resided in Antrim, Armagh and adjacent counties in the north of Ireland, where the name is still to be found. The evidence of this is apparent from the following anecdote: There was residing in this (Delaware) county a few years ago emigrants from Enniskillen, in the north of Ireland, who became acquainted with some of the Trimble family of Concord, and they would notice the striking resemblance of certain of these to one Jack Trimble of their native town. A connection of the family, knowing this circumstance, and meeting with another emigrant from Enniskillen, inquired if he knew Jack Trimble, and immediately received the answer, "Yes; were you ever in Ireland?"

* To ensure regularity of plan, the generations are carried on according to the Palmer descent, though this is actually the first generation of the Trimble family.

It is pretty well established that there arrived in this country in the 6th mo. (August), 1719, several brothers Trimble, but the exact number is in doubt. The names of William, James and Hugh are certain, as being brothers, and that of John is tolerably so, his name being to both William's and James's marriage certificates. Some accounts and traditions also exist of a Joseph and Henry.

As this record proposes to deal only with the descendants of William and James, the others will be passed with a brief notice.

Hugh m., but his wife's name does not appear; he settled in Middletown, Chester (now Delaware) co., Pa., and raised a family of children; his descendants still reside in the county, though they do not seem to be numerous. He appears to have been a man of some note, as he represented the county in the Provincial Assembly for four years—from 1756 to 1760.

John. We have no certain account of him, but he may have been the one that went to Virginia, as it is believed a brother removed that way, and if so, was probably the progenitor of the late Governor Allen Trimble of Ohio, the late Senator David Trimble of Kentucky, Hon. John Trimble of Tennessee, and of many of the name in the various Western States.

A Joseph Trimble emigrated from Ireland when a lad of fifteen years, about 1730, and served a time with a William Brown; he bought property in Nottingham, Chester co.; in 1741 m. Sarah Churchman, sister to John, a minister in the Society of Friends, and a second wife, Ann Chandler, having children by each. His descendants are still to be found in that vicinity.

William, b. —, 1705, in the county of Antrim, Ireland; d. 8 mo. 5, 1795; buried at Concord Friends' grounds.

6. Ann Palmer, b. —, 1706, in Concord; d. 10 mo. 11, 1755.

The proceedings in relation to their position in Friends' Meeting and marriage are shown by the following extracts:

"At our Monthly Meeting of Women Friends, held ye 5th of ye 4th mo. 1732,

"Ann Pamer and Mary Pamer daughters of John and Mary Pamer desires to come under ye care of friends and their request is accepted."

"At a Monthly meeting held at Concord Meeting-house ye 5th of ye 6th month 1734,

"Concord Preparative meeting Signifies that William Trimble Desires to come under the care of friends which this meeting accepts of."

"At a Monthly meeting held at Concord Meeting-house the Second day of ye Eighth month by appointment 1734 William Trimble & Ann Palmer appeared here & proposed their intentions of Marriage with each other this being the first time Nicholas & John Newlin are to enquire into his clearness relating to marriage and also to enquire of ye young woman's parents whether they are free that their daughter shall marry with the said young man and report to our next meeting."

"At the next Monthly Meeting 4th of 9 mo. 1734,

"William Trimble & Ann Palmer appeared here and continued their intentions of marriage this being the second time nothing appears to obstruct, they having consent of parents and relations as apered by those friends which were to go to ye young womans parents to inquire of their consent which they gave very freely therefore this meeting leaves them to their liberty to consumate their marriage according to the good order used amongst us. Nicholas Newlin & John Newlin are to attend the marriage & report to ye next meeting & return the Marriage Certificate to be recorded."

"At a Monthly meeting & ye 2nd day of ye 10 mo 1734. Those which were to attend the marriage of William Trimble and Ann Palmer report that it was accomplished orderly ye 13 day of ye 9 month 1734 at Concord meeting-house and moderate at ye house of entertainment."

William purchased land in close proximity to Concord Mill (see illustration), and erected thereon a dwelling (his land will be seen by reference to the map); it appears to have been purchased in two tracts—the first, about seventy acres, of Thomas West, July 12, 1737, being part of a tract of two hundred acres taken up by Thomas King by patent dated July 2, 1681, and a little later, from Joseph Nichlin, about thirty acres, which were a part of a tract purchased by Moses Key in 1702 of Thomas Moore, and subsequently sold to Nichlin. The annexed is a view of his residence. Their autographs are presented as found in a deed given to his brother James in 1748. See page 289.

Here William and Ann took up their permanent abode, and appeared to have thriven both in the good things of the earth and of the spiritual kingdom. Friends seem to have appreciated his services, from the following extract: "At a monthly meeting held the 4th day of 6 mo 1746, Concord preparative meeting returns William Trimble for an Elder to sit in the monthly meeting of ministers and Elders in the room of Thos. Gilpin which is accepted till farther orders." He was continued in this position many years, and most likely until his death. His name also very often appears in connection with other business of the Society.

As time progressed he became the owner of more land in the neighborhood, and also of a large tract in Whiteland twp., 15 miles northward in the Great Valley. The extent of his possessions is shown quite fully in his will. Ann, as may be noticed, died long before him.

He m. second wife, Phebe Thomas, 9 mo. 15, 1757, at Uwchlan M.-H., widow of Richard Thomas of Whiteland, and mother of three of his daughters-in-law. She was b. 8 mo. 26, 1717; no record of her death. For further notice see John Trimble, No. 18. No ch. by the last marriage.

From various certificates granted by Concord and Uwchlan Monthly Meetings, it would seem that William and Phebe removed to his possessions in Whiteland for a time, but returned to Concord after the death of his son John, and continued to reside there until the close of their lives.

WILLIAM TRIMBLE.

James, b. on Midsummer Eve, 6 mo. 24, 1707, in the county of Antrim, Ireland; d. 11 mo. 21, 1792, in Bradford, Chester co., Pa.; buried by the side of his wife in Friends' grounds at Marshallton. He arrived in this country in company with his brothers in 1719, and probably remained with or near them for some time, though nothing is known of his doings until we find—

“At a Monthly meeting held at Concord meeting-house ye 5 day of ye 3 month 1735,

“James Trimble Desires to joyn himself to friends and come under their care which is approved of.”

It has been suggested that both William and James “were induced into the fold by their sweethearts,” but, whatever the cause, we may safely assume that the subsequent life of each shows a sincerity of attachment to principle not common where connections are blindly formed.

7. Mary Palmer, being younger than Ann, was probably b. about 1708, but the entire record concerning her age seems to have been lost.

The proceedings relating to their marriage being exactly similar to those of William's and Ann's, I have somewhat abridged them:

“At a Monthly Meeting held at Concord ye 6 day of 8 month 1735 James Trimble & Mary Palmer appeared here & proposed their intentions of Marriage with each other &c. At the next meeting 3 of 9 mo 1735 James Trimble & Mary Palmer appeared here and continued their intentions of Marriage &c. &c.

“Thomas West & Benjamin Mendenhall Jr are to attend ye marriage & report. At the meeting held ye 5 of ye 11 month

1735 Those Friends that were to attend the marriage of James Trimble and Mary Palmer report that it was accomplished ye 3 day of ye 10 month 1735 at Concord Meeting-house and moderate at the house of entertainment."

Soon after their marriage they removed to within the limits of Chester Meeting, as—

"At a Monthly Meeting held at Concord 1st of 1 mo. (March) 1735 $\frac{1}{2}$ James Trimble made application for a certificate for him and his wife to Chester Monthly Meeting, they being settled within the varge of ye said meeting."

This settlement did not prove permanent, as "At a Monthly Meeting at Concord ye 5th of ye 4 month 1738, James Trimble produced a certificate for him and his wife from Chester Monthly meeting which is accepted."

The future home is not yet found, but a few months adds the additional information: "At a Monthly meeting held at Concord the first day of 11 month 1738, application being made to this meeting for a certificate for James Trimble and his wife they being settled within the varge of Br'dford Monthly Meeting John Newlin and Ralph Eavenson are to inquire into their affairs and Clearness of the conversation if nothing appears to obstruct to prepare a Certificate and bring it to next meeting."

At the next meeting the certificate for James Trimble and wife was produced and signed.

It is probable that their settlement was on the tract of land he afterward purchased, and which has continued to belong to his descendants to the present time. It is situated on the west branch of the Brandywine, in Bradford twp., Chester co., Pa., and a small village erected thereon bears the name of Trimbleville. The annexed view gives a good idea of the locality and situation of the buildings.

By reference to the deeds given in relation to this property, it appears to have been part of three several tracts of land as originally taken up by Richard Peirce, Benjamin Chambers and

VIEW OF THE SETTLEMENT OF JAMES AND MARY TRIMBLE, ON THE BRANDYWINE.

Samuel Marshall. The first deed states that "By a warrant from the late Proprietary's Commissioners dated the 17th of May 1705 there was surveyed and laid out on the 17th of Sept. then ensuing unto Richard Peirce in right of himself and wife Ann, who came servants into the provence at the first settlement thereof, a certain tract of land situate in Bensalem township (now called Bradford) containing 100 acres &c."

The second deed informs that by a patent under the hands of Edward Shippen, Griffith John, Thomas Story and James Logan, Commissioners of William Penn, late Proprietary of the province of Pennsylvania, etc., they did grant and convey to Benjamin Chambers a tract of land in Bensalem township containing 2470 acres, etc.

By the third deed we have that "John Penn Thomas Penn, and Richard Penn Esqs, true and absolute proprietaries of the provence of Pennsylvania &c, by a certain patent bearing date the 3 and 20th day of august 1735 for the consideration therein mentioned did grant and convey to Samuel Marshall a certain tract of land in Bradford township, county of Chester &c containing 199½ acres." The consideration mentioned in all the deeds is one English silver shilling, or value thereof in coin, yearly on the first of each March for each 100 Acres.

After various changes, portions of each of the above tracts came into the possession of William Marshall and Elizabeth his wife. And on 4th day of May, 1744, they sold to Robert Mendenhall, William Trimble and James Trimble a "certain mesuage plantation and water-corse and Grist-mill and saw-mill and 70 acres of land," giving to each a separate deed for one full and equal and undivided third part thereof. This copartnership continued eight years, when on the 18th day of June, 1752, William Trimble and Ann his wife, and Robert Mendenhall and Phebe his wife, conveyed to James Trimble their shares in the above property. In 1758 James also purchased adjoining lands to the amount of twenty-eight acres.

It is rarely that so intricate and numerous proceedings are met with in the purchase of land as may be found in the deeds which James and Mary became possessors of in connection with this property.

They lived here during the rest of their lives, quietly pursuing that noble avocation, farming. Their location has been rendered classic by its memorable associations with the American Revolution. It was at this place, Trimble's Ford, that the British crossed the stream on that eventful day, the 11th of September, 1777, to the surprise of Gen. Washington and temporary check to the cause of liberty.

James survived Mary many years, but remained unmarried. His will is as follows :

"Be it Remembered that I James Trimble of the township of West Bradford in the County of Chester and State of Pennsylvania being well stricken in years but through the goodness of God favoured with a sound disposing mind and Memory and calling to Mind the Mortality of my body I therefore for the settling of my outward estate do make and ordain this my last will and Testament in manner and form following viz First my will is that my Body be interred in a decent and orderly manner at the discretion of my hereinafter Ex^{rs} and that all my just debts and funeral charges be carefully and finally discharged by my Exr.

"Item I give and Bequeath unto my son James Trimble all my lands in West Bradford township, it being in three separate tracts as pr Deeds will appear, Computed to contain in the whole one hundred and twenty one acres with the Appurtenances, to hold to him his heirs and assigns forever.

"Item I give and Bequeath unto my son Isaac Trimble the sum of one hundred and fifty Pounds exclusive of what I have already given him as also my walnut Desk.

"Item I give and Bequeath unto my daughter Mary Downing the sum of twenty five pounds and the little walnut table marked with the letters M. P.

“Item I give and Bequeath unto my daughter Ann Taylor the sum of twenty five pounds.

“Item I give and bequeath unto my daughter Sarah Taylor the sum of fifty pounds.

“Item I give and Bequeath unto my daughter Hannah Faddis the lawful interest of thirty five pounds yearly to be laid out in such necessary clothing &c. as my daughters Mary Downing and Ann Taylor sees she stands in real need off for her own proper use and if she my said daughter Hannah should survive her husband that then it is my will that my Exr shall pay unto her the s'd sum of thirty five pounds but if her said husband John Faddis should survive her then it is my will the said sum of thirty five pounds shall be divided amongst her children or such of them as shall arrive to the age of twenty one years share and share alike each to receive their legace as they arrive at the age of twenty one years.

“N. B. the word Lawful was interlined before signing.

“And further it is my will that after my just debts and funeral charges with the legacies before named be fully paid and discharged that then the remainder and resadue of my estate whatsoever and wheresoever I give and Bequeath unto my son James Trimble.

“And lastly I do hereby nominate and appoint my well beloved son James Trimble whole and sole Executor of this my last will testament hereby revoking and disannulling all and every other former will or wills and Testaments in any wise heretofore by me made ratifying and confirming this and no other to be my last will and Testament.

“In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this twelfth day of the sixth month in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety 1790.

The marriage certificates of William and Ann, James and Mary, are, with the exception of names and dates, identical word for word; I have therefore appended them in a consolidated form. For William's read the top names and dates; and for James's the under ones:

"Whereas ^{William}_{James} Trimble of Concord in the County of Chester and province of Pennsylvania and ^{Ann}_{Mary} Palmer Daughter of John Palmer of the township and County aforesaid having Declared their intentions of marriage with each other before several monthly meetings of the People called Quakers of Concord in said county according to the good order used among them and having consent of Parents and Relations concerned their said proposal of marriage was allowed of by the said meeting. THIRD GENERATION.

Ch. of William Trimble and Ann Palmer (No. 6), all born in Concord, Chester (now Delaware) co., Pa.

18. John, b. First day, 6 mo. (Aug.) 24, 1735; d. 6 mo. (June) 25, 1772; m. Lydia Thomas 11 mo. 24, 1762, at Uwchlan M.-H., dau. of Richard Thomas and Phebe Ashbridge of West Whiteland (who were m. 2 mo. 10, 1739), b. 12 mo. 4, 1740; d. 11 mo. —, 1780, and sister to Grace and Hannah (see Nos. 19 and 20).

It seems almost certain that Richard belonged to the Thomas family that settled in West Whiteland, Chester co., Pa. He was the son of Richard and Grace, b. 2 mo. 22, 1713; d. ——— (?). The first settlement of that township was by a "Richard Thomas, in right of original purchase made in Wales by Richard Ap Thomas of Whitford, in Flintshire, North Wales. The house which this settler built upon his purchase was placed in the immediate vicinity of an Indian village, and the reason assigned for such a situation was that the dogs of the village would assist in keeping wild beasts (then numerous) at a distance."—Lewis.

Phebe Ashbridge appears to have been the dau. of George Ashbridge and Mary Malin of Chester and Goshen (who were m. in 1701), he being an emigrant in 1698. (For Phebe's second m., see William Trimble, No. 6.)

John and Lydia remained in Concord, pursuing the occupation of farming. He purchased land of Joseph Nichlin, adjoining his father's, Oct. 8, 1771, being part of a tract originally taken up by Nathaniel Parke, but they did not long enjoy its possession, as he died within a year after the purchase.

His widow m. second husband, Joshua Pusey, of London Grove, 10 mo. 21, 1778, by whom she had a dau., Lydia, b. 1 mo. 9, 1780; d. 4 mo. 19, 1872; unm.

19. William, b. Seventh day, 9 mo. 19, 1737; d. 2 mo. 6, 1821; m. Grace Thomas 9 mo. 11, 1766, at Uwehlan, sister to Lydia and Hannah (see Nos. 18 and 20), b. 11 mo. 3, 1740; d. 9 mo. 14, 1781.

M. second wife, Ann Taylor, 7 mo. 27, 1785, dau. of George and Ann Edge, b. 12 mo. 26, 1748; d. (no record). She was first the widow of Robert Parke, and secondly the widow of Benjamin Taylor, having children by each.

William and Grace settled in Whiteland, where their ch. were all born, but they appear to have resided in the vicinity of Concord. They brought a certificate from Uwehlan to Concord Meeting 6 mo. 9, 1779. Grace and their youngest child died while here. After his second marriage they removed to Caln, taking a certificate from Concord Meeting 8 mo. 3, 1785. By his father's will he became possessed of a farm in Whiteland, on which he made considerable improvement.

By reference to a deed given 10 mo. 28, 1776, it appears that after his father's second marriage he and Phebe deeded to William, Jr., and Grace a tract of eleven acres and thirty-four perches, including the saw-mill and right of race, stating the act to be "as well for the consideration of five shillings as for the love and affection which they have and do bear their said son and daughter."

20. Joseph, b. Second day, 7 mo. 17, 1739; d. 10 mo. 16, 1824; m. Hannah Thomas 5 mo. 14, 1783, in Concord M.-H., a sister to Lydia and Grace (see Nos. 18 and 19), b. 5 mo. 5, 1749; d. 5 mo. 2, 1829.

They lived in Concord, on the western part of his father's land, on which he engaged in farming, and became its owner before his father's death. Hannah became a minister in the Society of Friends, in which they were both beloved members. They had no children.

21. Samuel, b. Fifth day, 7 mo. 17, 1741; d. 7 mo. 13, 1818; m. Esther Brinton 4 mo. 15, 1767, in Concord M.-H., dau. of John Brinton and Margaret Williamson, b. —, 1742; d. 5 mo. 30, 1821.

John, son of William Briuton, Jr., and Jane Thatcher (who were m. 1690). William and Jane were emigrants with their parents, and it is said of them, "Both saw the country an unbroken wilderness, and both lived to see it well settled, cultivated and improved."

William, Jr., was the son of William Branton (Brinton) and Ann Bagley, who came from Nether Gournal, parish of Sedgeley, Staffordshire (near Birmingham), England, where he had goods distrained for non-payment of a fine under the Nonconformity Act. They settled in, and gave the name to, Birmingham twp., where he took up an extensive tract of land. Jane Thatcher was the dau. of Richard and Jane, who settled in Thornbury, and who, it is believed, migrated from Uffington, in Berkshire, England, where he had suffered persecution on account of his religion. Samuel and Esther resided in the village of Concordville, where he owned a small but fertile farm.

22. Hannah, b. Seventh day, 8 mo. 22, 1743; d. 5 mo. 8, 1834; m. Isaac Jacobs 9 mo. 18, 1766, of Chester Valley, son of John Jacobs of New Providence, Montgomery co., Pa., b. 4 mo. 13, 1741; d. 3 mo. 3, 1815.

Isaac and Hannah resided in Whiteland twp., Chester co., Pa., being settled on land of her father's, and which, at his death, she inherited by his will; of which also he was one of the executors. They, however, removed about 1805 to Cayuga co., N. Y., and there closed their lives. They were buried at North Street Cemetery.

Isaac had a brother, Israel Jacobs, who became noted for his talents and moral worth ; he was a representative in Congress for a time.

23. Daniel, b. Seventh day, 1 mo. 17, 1745 ; d. 2 mo. 2, 1807 ; m. Mary Downing 6 mo. 20, 1776, dau. of Richard Downing and Mary Edge of East Caln, b. 7 mo. 31, 1752 ; d. 1 mo. 30, 1779.

Richard Downing was a brother to Joseph (see No. 26). (There was a Richard Downing residing in Downingtown during the Revolution, who held the office of commissary in the American army.) Mary Edge, dau. of John, and granddau. of John and Jane Edge, who came to America in 1685, from St. Andrew's Hilborn, county of Middlesex, England.

M. second wife, Phebe Jones (no record of their m. or of her parents), b. 3 mo. 5, 1759 ; d. 8 mo. 12, 1786.

M. third wife, Ann Warner (no record of their m.) ; she was probably the dau. of Isaac and Lydia, b. 1 mo. 30, 1758 ; d. (no record).

Daniel appears to have lived part of his time in Concord and part in Whiteland until his marriage, after which he removed to Falls twp., Bucks co., taking a certificate from Concord to Falls Monthly Meeting for himself, wife and child, 4 mo. 8, 1778. His wife survived but a few months after their removal.

He m. his second and third wives in that neighborhood, where he continued to reside, being engaged in farming, during the remainder of his life. He and his wives were buried at Falls Meeting burial-ground.

24. Rachel, b. Seventh day, 4 mo. 11, 1748 ; d. 9 mo. 27, 1832 ; m. Amos Garrett 3 mo. 21, 1787, of Willistown (as his second wife), son of Isaac Garrett (no record of his birth or death).

Rachel appears, by the Meeting records, to have resided for a time with her brother Daniel in Bucks co., as she took a certificate to Falls Meeting 4 mo. 4, 1781, and returned again to Concord 5 mo. 7, 1783.

Amos and Rachel had no ch.

25. Ann, b. First day, 1 mo. 19, 1752; d. 9 mo. 30, 1827; m. Joshua Sharpless 5 mo. 20, 1789, of East Bradford, Chester co., Pa. (as his second wife), son of Benjamin Sharpless and Martha Mendenhall (who were m. 1746). No record of his birth or death. (For Joshua's first wife see No. 194.)

In the spring of 1800, Joshua and Ann removed to Westtown Boarding-school, where they continued in the capacity of superintendents until 1811, when they returned to their farm.

Ch. of James Trimble and Mary Palmer (No. 7); the first two were born near Chester, the rest in W. Bradford, Chester co., Pa.

26. Mary, b. 8 mo. 8, 1736; d. 7 mo. 4, 1807; m. Joseph Downing 10 mo. 9, 1755, at Bradford M.-H., youngest son of Thomas and Thomzin, b. 4 mo. 30, 1734; d. 10 mo. 7, 1804.

Thomas Downing (b. 12 mo. (Feb.) 14, 1691, in Bradninch, county of Devon, England) settled in the Great Valley, and built a mill and dwelling-house on the east branch of the Brandywine. The place was for a long time called Milltown, but subsequently changed to Downingtown. Thomas and Thomzin had eleven children, and their descendants are very numerous; he d. 1 mo. 15, 1772. Joseph and Mary settled to the eastward of the village; he became an extensive landholder and improver in the neighborhood, leaving the impress of his character on the well-improved farms that remain in possession of his descendants and others. He took an active part in the American cause during the Revolution, becoming thereby separated from the Society of Friends.

27. John, b. 1 mo. 3, 1738; d. 2 mo. 7, 1748.

28. James, b. 12 mo. 28, 1739; d. 7 mo. 16, 1819; m. Mary Sellers 11 mo. 1, 1770, at Bradford M.-H., dau. of Samuel Sellers and Jane Wood (who were m. 1737), b. 12 mo. (Feb.) 2, 1746; d. 4 mo. 21, 1790.

SETTLEMENT OF JOSEPH AND MARY DOWNING.

James and Mary settled at the homestead of his parents, which he afterwards inherited. He erected the present mill thereon, which he operated in connection with farming.

Samuel, son of Samuel Sellers, Jr., and Sarah Smith (who were m. 1712), b. 1715. Jane, dau. of George Wood and Hannah Hood, b. 1716. Samuel, Jr., son of Samuel Sellers and Anna Gibbons (who were m. 1684). He obtained a "high reputation as the inventor of a complex machine for twisting worsted and as a camlet and coverlet weaver." His wife was the dau. of John and Eleanor Smith, and his mother the dau. of Henry Gibbons. The elder Samuel emigrated from Darby in England about 1682, and settled in Darby, Chester (now Delaware) co., Pa. He was a man of considerable ability and note in the early settlement of Pennsylvania.

29. Ann, b. 11 mo. 17, 1741; d. 4 mo. 8, 1828; m. Abiah Taylor 5 mo. 6, 1762, son of Samuel Taylor and Mary Smedley of East Bradford, b. 9 mo. 29, 1738; d. 12 mo. 3, 1801.

Abiah and Ann lived near the east branch of the Brandywine, where he had an extensive farm. He was interested in the issues of his time, and was a Representative of Chester co. in the Legislature. He died at Harrisburg while in the performance of his official duties.

30. Sarah, b. 8 mo. 28, 1744; d. (no record); m. Abraham Taylor 1 mo. 1, 1789 (being his second wife), son of Samuel Taylor and Deborah Darlington (who were m. 1 mo. 15, 1740), b. 8 mo. 5, 1744; d. (no record).

Abraham was possessed of a fine farm on the Brandywine, where he and Sarah resided. His descendants by his first wife are numerous, both in the neighborhood of his late residence and in the great West, but by Sarah there appears to have been but one child, a dau., who died unm.

31. Isaac, b. 4 mo. 6, 1747; d. 3 mo. 28, 1824; m. Elizabeth Walter 5 mo. 8, 1771, dau. of Joseph Walter and Jane Brinton, b. 2 mo. 24, 1754; d. 12 mo. 1, 1787.

Joseph, son of Goodwin Walter and Elizabeth Sangurst, b. 12 mo. 28, 1711. (For an account of the latter see No. 142.) The following will explain Joseph's and Jane's deviation from good order:

"At a monthly meeting held at Concord M.-H. ye 6th of ye 9 mo 1738 Joseph Walter appeared here and proposed a paper of his acknowledgment for his outgoing in marrying his wife by and with a Priest contrary to the knowledge of his and her parents and also for his going to a man to inquire concerning a horse that is supposed to be stolen from the said Joseph, the meeting appoints Benj. Mendenhall & Ralph Eavenson to go with the said Joseph to see that he makes satisfaction to his parents & report to next meeting." The report was not submitted for three months, as appears by the following: "To the Monthly Meeting to be held at Concord ye 5th of ye 12 mo. 1738, Whereas I have been educated amongst the Religious Society of the people called Quakers but for want of having a due regard to the grace or good spirit of God in my heart did so much slight friends' rules concerning marriage as to take liberty marry by a Priest and contrary to Parents consent for which I find myself at a distance & not so near friends as since desired the sence of which hath brought some trouble upon me and am willing to take the blame to myself desiring friends would pass it by and continue me under their care hoping for the future to be more watchful through Divine assistance over my ways, and for going to a man to be informed concerning my horse I can truly say I had no desire that he should make use of any bad art in that affair and if he could not tell me anything by his learning in an honest way to go no further, likewise was ignorant concerning friends' rules in that affair but being since better informed hope for the future not to fall into the like again.

JOSEPH WALTER."

At the same meeting, "The Friends appointed to go with Joseph Walter to see how far he has made satisfaction to his and her parents report that he has done it and the said testimony is entered on the minutes."

Joseph was a "very powerful and passionate man, but it was said that a slight touch from the hand of his small and gentle wife, though unnoticed by others, would in a moment quell the storm in his bosom."

Isaac and Elizabeth removed about 1785 to Deer Creek, Md., where he owned and carried on a flour-mill. He is represented by a descendant as a "stern, staunch Friend, much esteemed by his religious neighbors of other persuasions, but feared by the reckless, of whom there were a large number around him." Elizabeth is described as possessing "great loveliness of character, with earnest Christian fearfulness." After her death Isaac removed to Baltimore, where he held the position of flour inspector for the city for many years. He died at the residence of his son John.

32. Hannah, b. 8 mo. 9, 1752; d. between 1820 and 1825; m. John Faddis about 1770. He emigrated from Ireland; b. about 1750; d. about 1815.

Hannah was dealt with for outgoing in marriage by Bradford Monthly Meeting 3 mo. 13, 1772. They continued near the home of her childhood, and after his death she lived with her nephew at the old homestead.

In the place of the saw-mill which his grandfather erected he built a cotton-factory, and he was for a time owner of the old Newlin mill.

They were active members of the Society of Friends, in which they held responsible positions; he was also cognizant of the affairs of state, and represented the county in the Legislature for five years (1804 to 1809). The accompanying portrait is from a painting taken when about fifty years of age.

Richard and Ann removed to Newburg, on the Hudson River, N. Y., in 1800, where he was engaged in milling, and remained there until 1835, when they returned to West Chester, Chester co., Pa., where they died; they were buried in Friends' grounds

Rich^d. Trimble

73. Ann, b. 2 mo. 16, 1778; d. quite young, during her parents' residence in Concord.

By Second Wife, Ann (Edge) (Park) Taylor.

74. Phebe, b. 7 mo. 21, 1786; d. 12 mo. —, 1816; m. Vincent

King, M. D., 1807, third of six ch. of Vincent King and Mary Brown of Little Britain (now Fulton) twp., Lancaster co., Pa., b. —, 1786; d. 12 mo. 2, 1825.

The elder Vincent son of James King, an early settler in the above locality, and Isabel Pennell. Mary, dau. of Joshua Brown, a distinguished minister among Friends, son of Jeremiah Brown and Mary (Cole), widow.

The following is taken from an account of Dr. King which appeared in the "Oxford Press" May 18, 1870:

"Vincent in early youth was known as a remarkably active boy of a kind disposition and possessed of a lively imagination. His parents being strict Friends, he was sent to Westtown school to receive a thorough English education. He remained at this school several terms, and while there the following incident took place, which may have had a tendency to lead him to pursue the study of medicine: One of the students was attacked with what was then termed typhus fever, and, to use a common phrase, was 'given up to die' by the attending physician. Vincent King, a brother-student, became much interested in the case, and asked permission of the superintendent to nurse and attend upon the pupil, who had now ceased to receive much aid from the physician in charge of the institution. Permission was granted, and young King assumed charge of the patient, watching him night and day, prescribing and caring for his sick school-mate. Finally, the sick student recovered, and, we are informed, is yet living at an advanced age.

"This success with his first patient led him to inquire further into the mysteries of the healing art, and while he remained at this school he was called Doctor by the pupils and teachers.

"Leaving Westtown, he at once chose the profession of medicine, and after diligent preparation and study graduated from the University of Pennsylvania in the class of 1807. In this year he was married. He first settled in Philadelphia, but in two years moved to Goshen, Chester co., thence to Baltimore, and finally to Columbia, Pa. At this place he lost his wife after a very short illness. In five years' time he married his second wife, Patience Wright, and removed to near the place of his birth.

"Dr. King was a man of talent, and was well posted in his profession, being intimate with some of the most eminent medical men of his day.

"Gifted with rare conversational powers, he was well calculated to succeed in his profession; which he did to a remarkable degree in his several settlements, to be suddenly broken by a temperament of an unsettled nature that seemed to impel his frequent removals.

"While he practiced in different localities several students, in order to avail themselves of his able counsels, studied medicine under him. His death, like that of his first wife, was very sudden, taking place while on a professional visit, where, being taken very ill, he lingered a few days, unable to be removed home until life had departed."

75. John, b. 1 mo. 31, 1788; d. 10 mo. 28, 1855; m. Thomazin Downing (No. 410) 12 mo. 18, 1817.

It may be noticed that she being a descendant of James Trimble and Mary Palmer, their children combine a descent through both lines. They resided at the homestead of his parents, which he obtained partly by the will of his father and partly by purchase of his brother Richard. He pursued farming, but in addition thereto had both a grist- and a saw-mill, which he kept in operation.

John Trimble
Thomazin Trimble

76. Grace, b. 12 mo. 24, 1789; d. 8 mo. 17, 1867; m. Joseph Evans 5 mo. 26, 1814, in Uwchlan M.-H., son of Jonathan Evans and Hannah Bacon, b. 9 mo. 28, 1789; d. 2 mo. 10, 1871.

They resided in Springfield twp., Delaware co., Pa., where he owned a farm. They were much-esteemed and exemplary members of the Society of Friends, in which she was for many years an elder.

77. William, b. 3 mo. 12, 1793; d. 12 mo. 18, 1863; m. Sarah Vickers 4 mo. —, 1823, at Oley or Exeter M.-H., Berks co., Pa., dau. of Abraham Vickers, M. D., and Mary Eastwick, b. 6 mo. 22, 1793.

Resided in Uwchlan, Chester co., where they kept a boarding-school for ten years. He afterwards went to farming on a farm adjoining that of his father; he also obtained a portion of his father's land by will. Since William's death, Sarah resides with her daughter (see No. 340).

Ch. of Samuel Trimble (No. 21) and Esther Brinton.

78. Margaret, b. 6 mo. 8, 1769; d. 4 mo. 30, 1850; m. Thomas Peirce 3 mo. 18, 1794, in Concord M.-H., ninth child of Caleb Peirce, Jr., and Ann Mendenhall (who were m. 5 mo. 1, 1754), b. 9 mo. 5, 1770; d. 11 mo. 1, 1826.

Caleb, Sr., son of George Peirce and Ann Gainor (who were m. 11 mo. (Jan.) 4, 1679, in England). George emigrated from Winston, county of Somerset, and Ann from Thornbury, county of Gloucester, England. They settled in Thornbury, Chester co., to which he gave the name in remembrance of the residence of his bride. (For portion of his land see map.) Caleb Peirce, Sr., m. Mary Walter, dau. of Goodwin Walter and Elizabeth Sangurst (see No. 142). She was b. 1698; d. 10 mo. —, 1753. Ann Mendenhall, dau. of Robert Mendenhall and Phebe Taylor, and sister to Stephen (see No. 82), b. 2 mo. 26, 1738; d. 2 mo. 27, 1828.

The following extract from a testimony issued by Concord Monthly Meeting concerning Ann Peirce seems appropriate :

"She was remarkable in early life for her uniform stability of conduct, and evinced a concern at that time to take up the cross, so that she became exemplary for moderation and plainness. Being a preacher of righteousness in life and conversation, she never permitted herself to assume anything of a dictatorial spirit. She was remarkably careful to discourage everything calculated to engender strife, but rather at all times to exercise the office of a peacemaker. She was likewise much interested for the tender care and support of the poor amongst us and in her neighborhood, and more especially for those who with herself were advanced in age; and this care remained with her to the close of her life."

79. Ann, b. 7 mo. 16, 1771; d. 10 mo. 16, 1857; m. George Williams 4 mo. 10, 1811, son of Hezekiah and Grace. He died in 1850 in his eighty-sixth year. No ch.

They resided in Philadelphia, where his name was connected with many philanthropic works for the benefit of the unfortunate and outcasts of society.

"DAVID THOMAS, an American pomologist and florist, and writer on agriculture. Was educated in the principles of the religious Society of Friends; in 1817 he published 'Travels in the West,' which attracted the attention of De Witt Clinton, and led to his appointment as chief engineer on the Erie Canal west of Rochester, which position he held until the completion of the canal. Subsequently, on the recommendation of Governor Clinton, he was employed as one of the principal engineers on the Welland Canal in Canada. As a florist and pomologist, Mr. Thomas had few if any superiors in the United States; by his contributions to the 'Genesee Farmer' he rendered an important service to the cause of agriculture, particularly in refuting an error once widely prevalent, that wheat under certain circumstances was liable to be changed into chess, a plant of quite a different genus. . . . His writings and carefully-conducted experiments led to great practical improvements in this department of agriculture."

Joseph removed to Maryland with his father, and afterwards to Baltimore, where he entered with his brother John into a shipping and mercantile trade, which continued for several years. Previous to his marriage he purchased and removed to a farm at Pimlico, a few miles from the city. This he afterwards sold, and purchased a large farm in Harford co., Md., where in conjunction with the farm he also had a saw-mill. In 1st mo., 1870, he and Ann were both taken ill with pneumonia, of which she died, and which weakened him so that he died in a few weeks after. At the time of his death he was the oldest member of Baltimore Yearly Meeting of Friends, having lived almost a century.

The following account of him appeared in a neighboring paper a few days after his death:

"Joseph Trimble, an aged and much-respected resident of Harford co., Md. (formerly of Chester co., Pa.), died on the 17th inst., in the ninetyeighth year of his age. This venerable man was a member of the Society of Friends and a constant attendant of Forest Meeting, about six miles distant from his home, for upwards of sixty years, having, it is stated, never missed a meeting (twice a week) during that time. He also attended sixty consecutive yearly meetings at Baltimore. It is estimated that during his lifetime he has traveled at least one hundred thousand miles in going to and returning from meeting. He was always a very hale and hearty man, remarkable for his temperate and industrious habits. During the last years of his life he employed himself in his woodhouse in cutting up all the wood used in the dwelling, doing so for the sake of the exercise it afforded, and he could handle the saw and axe quite as dexterously as many men seventy years younger. He retained, to a remarkable degree, all his faculties except his hearing, which failed towards the close of his life."

The accompanying portrait is taken from a daguerreotype in the possession of his daughter.

In 1809 George went to New York to attend school; the next year he became a clerk in a commission and shipping house. From this he became actively engaged in business, which he pursued for about thirty years with success.

The accompanying portrait is from a photograph taken a short time before his decease, and his autograph from a letter to the compiler of this work. The following minute and resolutions will explain themselves, and also give a good account of the man:

"THE LATE GEORGE T. TRIMBLE.—Resolutions of the Trustees of the Roosevelt Hospital.—At a meeting of the trustees of the Roosevelt Hospital, held on Thursday evening, May 26, 1872, the following minute and resolutions were adopted:

"George T. Trimble, a trustee and the treasurer of the Roosevelt Hospital, died on the 16th instant, in the seventy-ninth year of his age.

"At the death of Mr. Roosevelt in 1863, and the incorporation of the Roosevelt Hospital in 1864, Mr. Trimble was the president of the Managing Board of the Society of the New York Hospital, and as such, under the provisions of Mr. Roosevelt's will and the charter granted by the Legislature, became, ex-officio, a trustee of the Roosevelt Hospital. Upon the organization of the board he was elected treasurer. He continued in these positions until his death, and was also a member of the Building Committee from the commencement of the building of this corporation until February last, when, at his own request, he was relieved from the duties of that position.

"From early life Mr. Trimble was active in the management of the charities of the city. Retiring at a comparatively early age from the pursuits of business, in which he had accumulated a sufficient property, he devoted himself to a life of usefulness towards his fellow-men. He became a trustee of the Public School Society in 1818, and continued such until the schools of that society became in 1853 merged in those of the Board of Education, having for various periods served as treasurer and vice-president, and from 1847 to 1853 as president, of that society. For many years he was connected with and the president of the New York Dispensary, the first established of that useful class of charities now numerous in this city. In 1847 he became one of the governors of the Society of the New York Hospital, in 1850 its vice-president and in 1858 its president, and continued president until his decease; and for a long period he has been a prominent and influential member of the Society of Friends, with which he was all his life connected.

"In all the positions he has held and all the connections of life he was characterized by an unswerving integrity, a perfect faithfulness in the discharge of every duty, and an urbanity and kindness which commanded the respect and affection of all who were brought into intercourse with him; and at a good old age he has died, attended by the love and regrets of family, friends and associates.

"It is especially as a trustee of the Roosevelt Hospital and as the treasurer from its origin that the board is called to regret his loss.

"He was punctual in his attendance at the meetings of the board and in the performance of duties as a member of the Building Committee, and exact and faithful in the labors of treasurer. He devoted much time and attention to the interests of this institution, and proved himself a wise adviser and careful administrator of its finances; therefore,

"Resolved, That the trustees of the Roosevelt Hospital mourn the decease of their late associate and treasurer, George T. Trimble, and recall with grateful remembrance the wisdom of his counsel, the faithfulness with which he discharged every duty, and the kindness and courtesy which characterized his intercourse.

"Resolved, That the foregoing minute and resolution be entered upon the records of this board and be published, and that a copy thereof, duly authenticated, be transmitted to the family of the deceased, with the assurance of the respectful sympathy of this board in their bereavement.

"EDWARD DELAFIELD, President.

"Attest: JOHN M. KNOX, Secretary."
